CARVER YELLOW JACKETS

COACH'S COMMENTS:

We return 15 starters. Key returners are MONTERIOUS GODFREY (906 rushing yards), a sophomore running back. ELIJAH KENNEDY will move up to play slot."

"The defense will be anchored by MASON BOWERS (6-4, 255-pound defensive end) and Brian Anderson (6-0, 225-pound linebacker), who started as a freshman"

2018 SCHEDULE: "The non-conference schedule will be challenging, as well as a tough conference schedule. We look to be very competitive this season."

DAVIE COUNTY

COACH'S COMMENTS:

Davie County has its sights set on a 'bounce-back' 2018 season in the second year of having their brand new campus. The War Eagles slipped to a 5-7 finish in 2017 (12-2 the year before), including a first round exit from the 4A state playoffs.

A talented backfield of running backs Josh Robinson and Adrian Cranfill will have to help Davie County transition past the departure of quarterback Josh Hall, who threw for 2,104 yards during his career.

EAST FORSYTH EAGLES

OUTLOOK:

Could 2018 be the year that Head Coach Todd Willert leads East Forsyth to the ultimate prize? Willert has built a championship-like culture in Kernersville during his previous 14 seasons, yet a state championship continues to elude him.

COACH'S COMMENTS:

What had the potential to be a special year for Glenn (a 10-0 start) flipped quickly in 2017, when the Bobcats lost on Halloween, 17-14 at home to West Forsyth, to close the regular season; then, two weeks later, Glenn fell in overtime in the playoffs to Zebulon, 35-34.

This coaching staff's biggest challenge will be to replace 'all-everything' quarterback Stephon Brown (47 total touchdowns in 2017), who chose to continue his football career at Appalachian State.

LEDFORD SENIOR

PANTHERS

COACH'S COMMENTS:

Ledford finished the 2017 season with an impressive 9-3 record, and will look to build on that despite replacing quarterback Matthew Rodgers, who accounted for 18 touchdowns last year.

On both sides of the ball, Ledford will be pushed by senior defense back Coleman Reich, a 3-star UNC commitment, and one of the top players in the state.

MOUNT TABOR SPARTANS

OUTLOOK:

Mount Tabor rode its suffocating defensive prowess and high-octane offense to an 11-3 finish in 2017, including a Piedmont Triad 3A title with a perfect 6-0 conference record, under first-year Head Coach Tiesuan Brown. The Spartans hit their stride in Week 6, registering 8 straight wins while scoring 35.6 ppg and allowing only 12 ppg during that stretch. Mt. Tabor's hot streak ended at home, with a 27-20 loss to Sun Valley in the third-round of the 3AA State Playoffs.

NORTH DAVIDSON KNIGHTS

COACH'S COMMENTS:

After falling short of the state championship game, second-year coach Brian Flynn will look to build on the team's 13-2 record.

North Davidson will have to replace several key offensive talents, including running back TJ Boyce (NC A&T), kicker Chris Dunn (NC State) and quarterback Josh Sicignano. The Black Knights have serious players on both sides of the ball: defensive lineman Blake Stephens (109 tackles, 20 sacks) and athlete Themus Fulks (six interceptions).

NORTH FORSYTH VIKINGS

COACH'S COMMENTS:

A strong interior of the offensive line, led by guards Rodney Lindsey and Reggie Archer, for the Vikings should help protect veteran quarterback Richard Bryce, who has playmakers to get the ball to: Jaydon Hickman and Brandon Davis.

On defense, Andre Walters returns in the middle at linebacker. Up front, Jeremiah Howard, who split time between varsity and JV in 2017, will look to get after the quarterback.

OAK GROVE HIGH SCHOOL

OUTLOOK:

It will be the first year of varsity football for Oak Grove H.S. — who opened their brand new Midway facility in August 2017 because of over-crowding at Ledford Senior & North Davidson High Schools. It was the coach at one of those schools who decided to depart for new beginnings at Oak Grove, and ultimately, leave behind his Alma mater.

COACH'S COMMENTS:

Parkland has a chance to be a dangerous team in 2018 — with 16 starters returning, eight on both sides of the ball.

On offense, quarterback Camion Shell returns behind three returning starters along the offensive line: Will Brown, Sisa Dreher and Derrick Grampus.

The Mustangs will be led by 6-foot-2 linebacker Lee Kpogba, a top-25 player in the state of North Carolina and a West Virginia commit.

COACH'S COMMENTS:

Improving upon a defense that issues at times last season is at the top of the priority list for the Raiders; however, coach Josh McGee must also figure out who his starting quarterback will be: senior Riley White or junior Gabriel Hollingsworth.

The offensive line will be anchored by veteran Camuary Jones, who stands 6-foot-4 and close to 300 pounds.

REIDSVILLE

COACH'S COMMENTS:

Reidsville's defense will be paced by veteran linebacker Trail Rankin, a four-year starter for the Rams. He will see time on offense, too.

Speaking of offense, senior running back Travion Canada (92.7 all-purpose yards per game in 2017) has star potential.

REYNOLDS DEMONS

OUTLOOK:

Coach Pat Crowley led the Reynolds Demons to a great start in 2017, winning 6 of their first 8 games. Reynolds then dropped consecutive games to conference foes West Forsyth, Glenn, and East Forsyth. A fourth straight defeat, ended the Demons season, a 34-6 loss to Vance in the 1st round of the State playoffs.

COACH'S COMMENTS:

After three seasons as the head coach of Walkertown, which included an 0-11 record in 2017, Josh Pardue stepped down in mid-June to become the defensive line coach at Wilkes Central. Pardue left to cut down on his work commute.

Offseason workouts were handled by a rotation of assistant coaches for the Wolfpack, who will look to build an offense around quarterback Isaiah Conrad and Johnathan Hudgins.

PRESEASON FOOTBALL SCRIMMAGES

For the first time, area high schools and others from across North Carolina will ascend upon BB&T Field-- home to the Wake Forest Demon Deacons football team-- for one final tuneup before the start of the regular season. Hosted by West Forsyth High School, the Kickoff Classic will be held Friday, August 10th and the first scrimmage will kickoff at 4:30p. Participating teams include West Forsyth, Reagan, East Forsyth, Oak Grove, Mount Airy, Surry Central, Randleman, Kannapolis Brown, Richmond Senior, and Matthews Weddington. The format for the preseason football jamboree calls for five scrimmages, each totaling 24 minutes in length, or one half of a varsity game, and play will cover the entire field at a time. Coaches will remain on their sideline, and teams will have three timeouts to utilize.

OUTLOOK:

The Titans once-perfect, 11-0 season came crashing down in a 41-34 second-round defeat to Hough in the 2017 4AA state playoffs. So, despite winning the Central Piedmont 4A conference with an unblemished 5-0 record, the failure to win a playoff game and advance as a heavy favorite has been difficult for many in Clemmons to put behind them.
