ANDREWS

OUTLOOK:

Kelly Clark led the Red Raiders to a 4-8 record as an interim coach in 2017; the interim tag was lifted in the summer of 2018, and Clark looks to lead Andrews for a second season. On defense, Andrews will be led by defensive back Braylen Brown (88 career tackles) and linebacker Isaiah Taylor, who collected 36 tackles and a sack during the 2017 season.

DUDLEY

OUTLOOK:

At Dudley, a program that's won three state titles since 2007, coach Stephen Davis doesn't rebuild; he reloads. The Panthers have plenty to replace, though: running back Zariak Rush-Foxworth (14 total touchdowns), quarterback Gerald Simpson and two-way player DJ Crossen, who signed with Virginia Tech.

Fortunately for Dudley, the Panthers have plenty of talent, especially on the defensive side of the ball — starting with linebackers Jurriente Davis and Landen Johnson, who combined for 262 tackles and nine sacks in 2017.

EASTERN GUILFORD

OUTLOOK:

Doug Robertson built a winning tradition at Eastern Guilford, now the task to continue that tradition belongs to Joe Glass — who was named the next head coach of the Wildcats early in the spring. Robertson exited Eastern Guilford to take the Thomasville job after leading the 2017 Wildcats to a 12-3 record, losing in the state semifinals to eventual champion, New Hanover.

GRIMSLEY

OUTLOOK:

What had the potential to be a special year for Glenn (a 10-0 start) flipped quickly in 2017, when the Bobcats lost on Halloween, 17-14 at home to West Forsyth, to close the regular season; then, two weeks later, Glenn fell in overtime in the playoffs to Zebulon, 35-34.

This coaching staff's biggest challenge will be to replace 'all-everything' quarterback Stephon Brown (47 total touchdowns in 2017), who chose to continue his football career at Appalachian State.

HIGH POINT CENTRAL

OUTLOOK:

The offense will be led by sophomore running back Monterious Godfrey, who ran for 906 yards on 136 carries in 2017; on the perimeter, two-sport star Trent Westray (who also plays basketball) gives Central another playmaker.

Coach Lonnie Jones on his 2018 squad: "We return 15 starters. We were a young team last season; we won five games out of the 11 we played."

COACH'S COMMENTS:

• Head coach Earl Bates on his team's experience and shift in defensive philosophy: "We have 27 seniors on this team. Our defensive starters mainly all return, but we have changed from a 4-3 to a 3-4 based scheme."

• On offense, Johnny Pagano moves from wide receiver to quarterback; he will replace Ta'rique Ridges — 1,194 career all-purpose yards.

COACH'S COMMENTS:

• Head coach Jared Rolfes looks to build on an impressive debut season at Page, when he helped lead the Pirates to 11 wins and an appearance in the state quarterfinals, which ended in a 9-5 defeat to state runner-up Mallard Creek.

• The Pirates return plenty of skill on offense, including Javondre Paige at quarterback (2,011 pass yards, 34 total touchdowns) and all-purpose star Cody King, who collected 12 total touchdowns in 2017.

OUTLOOK:

• Second-year coach Johnny Boykin plans to build on an impressive 7-5 record in 2017; however, Ragsdale will have to do that without star running back Malachi Maness (1,390 rushing yards and 19 touchdowns), the 2017 Metro 4A Player of the Year.

• Veteran offensive linemen Jacob Gates and Cameron Blizzard return to protect quarterback Devan Boykin, who will look to distribute the ball to playmakers Tre Goode, Jonah Handy and Cameron Chapman.

SMITH

OUTLOOK:

The Golden Eagles of Smith closed the 2017 season losing five of their last season games, but return junior quarterback Jordan Williams, who threw 10 touchdown pass and for 1,283 yards as a sophomore.

Coach Brandon Wiggins on his expectations for 2018: "We lost depth at defensive and offensive line, and some playmakers at receiver; however, we return a good stable of running backs and will look to run the ball, and play good defense."

Defensively, Smith will be paced by linebacker Joseph Cheeks (71 tackles, one sack) and end Nicholas Witherspoon (18 tackles for loss).

Here at SARAH'S KABOB SHOP we love what we do, especially making our customers happy and since we OPENED UP IN 2012 we continue to enjoy every minute of it.

First, we must thank our customers for supporting us on our journey. I remember seeing this empty space one day when going the DMV and thinking "WOW" it sure would be nice to have a restaurant, and here we are. Time has flown by and Sarah's has grown a lot since then. We've added delivery and catering to our existing dine-in and carry out options to make having fresh, delicious food as convenient as possible. As with our restaurant menu, customers wishing to have their events catered have complete control over their choices. Whether corporate luncheons, weddings, parties of any kind or dinner at home for a few friends and relatives we can together the perfect menu or have you select your personal favorites. In any case, our family is happy to be of service.

With our initial dream now a reality, our next step is to expand into our own, larger place, with more space and parking for our wonderful customers. Yes, we love what we do and enjoy seeing friends and families with smiles on their faces as they do what we all love to do...EAT!!!

COACH'S COMMENTS:

Coach Jason Bradley on his signal-caller: "Offensively, we will return our starting quarterback Myles Crisp, though he will be a sophomore, he grew tremendously at the position."

On defense, Bradley's talisman is Roman Johnson, the Mid-Piedmont 3A Defensive Player of the Year (132 tackles, 17 sacks): "At the moment, Roman has offers from eight schools (including Elon, Navy, Army). Roman is our leader and anchor on defense."

COACH'S COMMENTS:

Coach Eric Rainey knows his offense lacks experience but has a bellwether back: "Offensively, we will be young at most positions. We will lean on our experienced running back Tyrey Graham to carry much of the offensive load."

Rainey on his defense: "We will belong and strong up front, anchored by three-time all-conference nose tackle John Oxce. We will be fast on defense."

WESTERN GUILFORD

OUTLOOK:

After a winless 2017 season (0-11), there's plenty of room for growth for Western Guilford. The Hornets must replace quarterback Edrick Purnell, who threw for 1,000 yards and ran for 1,000 yards, too, in 2017.

On defense, Western Guilford will be led by linebacker Trimon Holland (77 tackles) in the Piedmont Triad 3A — one of the toughest conferences in the state.
