EXHIBIT B

Outreach Activities for the time period covered by this report

Initiative: Establishment of an internship program designed to assist members of the community to acquire skills needed for broadcast employment. Activity Classification 5.

Date: Summer 2019

Participants: Corporate Offices

Curtis Media Group established a paid internship outreach at UNC-Chapel Hill to provide opportunities for students to experience radio station operations by shadowing employees and working on special projects. Four student interns were selected, and time was given for students to have mentorship time with the CEO Donald W. Curtis. Supervisors included Luanne Lane, Allison Smith and Jason Kong who worked with the interns to plan a project and then present their work.

Date: Ongoing

Participants: Corporate Offices

Curtis Media Group has an ongoing internship program in the programming, promotion, marketing and production departments. These are semester-long for-credit programs that allowed students the opportunity to experience radio station operation by shadowing station employees on-air, in the studio, projects, events and promotions.

During the reporting period, the employment units hosted 9 interns for academic credit. The interns worked under the supervision of Jud Heussler (WPLW), Bruce Ferrell (WPTF) and Corporate staff including Rachael Jackson, Jason Kong, and Lisa Hobbs.

Initiative: Workshop and Station Tour for Meredith College Communication Students. Activity Classification 16.

Date: February 22, 2019

Participants: WBBB, WPLW, WQDR, WYMY

More than 20 students had the opportunity to participate in a workshop led SVP David Stuckey on broadcast and radio opportunities. Students were given a tour of the studios and had a chance to spend time inside the WYMY, WPLW, WBBB and WQDR studios.

Initiative: Participation in Job banks and internet programs designed to promote outreach that is not primarily directed to providing notification of specific vacancy. Activity Classification 6.

Date: Ongoing

Participants: Corporate Offices

Liza Weidle, CMG Career Development Director, established a partnership with the Networking Women of the Triangle, a primarily online group that reaches more than 20,000 women in the Triangle area. Efforts included writing career development and interview blogs and Career Fair support.

Initiative: Establishment of a scholarship programs designed to assist students interested in pursuing a career broadcasting. Activity Classification 7.

Date: Ongoing

Participants: Corporate Offices

Company Chairman/CEO established a scholarship for Communications students at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill to assist qualified students needing financial aid to pursue studies leading to a career in media.

The Curtis Foundation established the Bessemer City Curtis Scholars Program that give four annual high school scholarships.
