EXHIBIT B

Outreach Activities for the time period covered by this report

Initiative: Establishment of a scholarship programs designed to assist students interested in pursuing a career in broadcasting. Activity Classification 7.

Date: Ongoing

Participants: Corporate Management Team

Company Chairman/CEO established a scholarship for Communications students at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill to assist qualified students needing financial aid to pursue studies leading to a career in media.

The Curtis Foundation established the Bessemer City Curtis Scholars Program that gives four annual high school scholarships.

The corporate management team, which includes the Market Manager of the Unit, participates in and provides input into administration of this scholarship program.

Initiative: Establishment of an internship program designed to assist members of the community to acquire skills needed for broadcast employment. Activity Classification 5.

Date: Ongoing

Participants: Corporate Management Team

Curtis Media Group has an ongoing internship program in the programming, promotion, marketing and production departments. These are semester-long for-credit programs that allowed students the opportunity to experience radio station operation by shadowing station employees on-air, in the studio, projects, events and promotions. The corporate management team, which includes the Market Manager of the Unit, participates in and provides input into administration of the internship program.

During the height of the COVID-19 pandemic, which encompasses the bulk of this reporting period, the Unit was unable to provide its typical internship opportunities.

Initiative: Participation in programs designed to promote outreach generally.
Activity Classification 6

Date: Ongoing

Participants: Unit Market Manager and other members of Corporate Management Team

The Unit maintains a close working relationship with the Kellar Radio Talent Institute and student-run radio station WASU, which are both housed at Appalachian State University, in Boone, NC. The president of Curtis Media Group is a regular speaker at the Institute, and the Unit's Market Manager is in regular contact with faculty to provide broadcast education and employment opportunities to students. During the height of the COVID-19 pandemic, which encompasses the bulk of this reporting period, the Unit was unable to participate in its typical collaboration with WASU and the Institute. For example, Trip Savery, president of Curtis Media Group, was scheduled to speak at the Institute in 2020, but the engagement was cancelled due to the pandemic. As COVID subsides, the Unit is continuing this relationship as opportunities have again become available. For example, the Unit has partnered with WASU on a number of projects and the Unit's Market Manager is scheduled to speak at the Institute on June 7, 2022.

Initiative: Participation in activities designed to disseminate information as to employment opportunities in broadcasting to candidates who might not otherwise be aware of such opportunities. Activity Classification 16

Date: Ongoing

Participants: All Unit personnel

The Unit maintains an Employee Referral Bonus Plan, which encourages employees to discuss broadcast employment opportunities with members of the community and awards a monetary bonus for qualified leads and referrals who are hired by the Unit.

Initiative: Establishment of training programs for station personnel. Activity Classification 8

Date: Ongoing

Participants: Sales staff

Beginning in May 2020, founder and CEO of Curtis Media Group, Don Curtis, hosts weekly sales training sessions via Zoom for all company employees, including Unit personnel. These sessions are designed to assist staff in improving sales and marketing skills, and topics have included customer service, client expectations, and preparation for sales calls.
